FAVORITE BUILDING IN THE WEST

"The Old Faithful Lodge in Yellowstone National Park, which I have fond early memories of. It is amazingly monumental—even more so when you are eight years old—as it rises with four-story balconies built of lodgepole pine. It's one of the largest log structures in the world."

“The Brown Palace in Denver is absolutely amazing. The exterior beckons you, and once you’re inside, you see the detail and beauty of every aspect of the finishes, from the amazing lighting to the onyx walls. It’s classy and tasteful—a must-see in Denver.”

“The Lost Creek Ranch in Jackson Hole is right at the top of my list of absolute favorite experiences. The historic ranch is a privately owned island in the middle of national park and forestland, and being there is like stepping back in time. It’s a first-class opportunity to really get back to nature.”
